HOODLUMS AT LARGE IN KNOX COUNTY

Destroy Watermelon Patch

A most disgraceful outrage was perpetrated last Friday when W. E. Carey was attending the funeral of his sister-in-law at Artemus.

Men or boys, with minds which are non-understandable, except that they are degenerates, entered Mr. Carey's garden and deliberately destroyed his watermelon patch, which contained about $100 worth of growing melons. They kicked the green melons to pieces and cut the vines.

Mr. Carey is a splendid citizen, one whose progressive ideas will mean much to Knox County. If he can get protection against such deliberate hoodlums. He intended to put out two acres of strawberries next season and thus initiate the biggest example we could have as to what strawberries will do in the county but there is mighty little encouragement for anyone to do anything of the kind if the work of weeks and months is to be subjected to the good pleasure of such a bunch of hoodlums whose minds would shame those of Igorrotes.

We understand the matter is being brought to the attention of the Grand Jury and we sincerely hope that the perpetrators of this dastardly outrage will be run down and if found guilty, be given the limit.

It is also stated that a widow, who was depending on the money from her peach orchard to see her thru, lost her crop, the thieves using wagons to carry away the fruit. This is as low down a trick as the other and is plain thieving just as much as the they had broken into a store or residence.

It has been told the editor when seeking to boost fruit growing, that it cannot be done as the fruit will be stolen. If so, why? If these cases are reported and an officer put on every case until run down and the thieves sent to the penitentiary, it will soon cease. It is because they have been allowed to get away with it that they feel they can do it. The robbing of gardens is on the same plane. Let us make it known that every theft will be paid for by the limit and the thieves in Knox County will not mock the law nor will hoodlums destroy the work of industrious citizens. Send them up. A thief is a thief and a degenerate should be in the place where such persons are kept.

The Advocate will be glad to report all well authenticated cases and suggests that they be given to the officers and the newspaper. Just so long as people meekly stand for it so long will it go on and no longer.

Bill Hughes and Harry Hershberg sent the Avro thru its paces Monday, looping the loop, fandangos in a Espanol, paraboloing und etc. Bill was formerly intensely interested in Wirelessing, later in running his 1,000 h. p. June bug, but now he thinks the life of an aviator is the highest attainment.

FINE LECTURE

Dr. W. W. Anderson, president of the Kentucky State Medical Association, and Dr. J. S. Lock were here Saturday in attendance on the Knox County Medical Association.

In the evening at the Court House Dr. Anderson delivered a splendid inspirational address on "The Mind and Health" which should have been heard by every citizen in Barbourville. The speech was flecked with humor and yet was full of thought on the influence of the mind on the health. Touching on the various creeds or isms which have been founded with the mind as the basis for the cure of bodily ills, Dr. Anderson said there is a modicum of truth in them all and that teaching the evil effects of worry and the beneficial process of a cheerful outlook on life has made many cures of ills due to worry. He stated, however, that they cannot be used for the cure of organic trouble.

Dr. Lock followed with a tribute to the work about to be undertaken by Miss Effie Jump, Red Cross Nurse who, after completing her course of lectures over the County, will take up public health nursing. Dr. Lock said he was glad to compliment Miss Jump's work elsewhere and asked that our people get behind her and help her to eradicate such evils as typhoid, dysentery and other preventable diseases which even now are raging in Knox County.

After the addresses a banquet was served at the Jones Hotel which was attended by the medical men, their wives and other invited guests.

SHOOTING AT MANCHESTER

On Saturday afternoon a shooting affray took place between Theo Lytle and a man named Mills. The shooting was at the Manchester C. & M. depot while the traveling public were in coal gons, supplied by the management to take them to the other side of a wreck which prevented the regular train from reaching Manchester to bring the passengers over to Barbourville. Mr. Lytle was in one of the gons when Mills got in and it is alleged, walked over to him and started to shoot. The first shot took effect, entering by the liver, but fortunately across the side rather than into the liver. The wounded man immediately got his pistol into play and shot Mills thru the arms and legs. Mills tumbled from the gon and it was that he was dead, but, tho it is believed he will lose one of his legs, from which the bone is said to have protruded, he will most likely live. It is said Mills had worked for Mr. Lytle at one of his lumber mills and trouble had arisen over some hand saws or belts.

The gons were full of people when the shooting occurred and as may be imagined, they jumped over the sides without delay, and fortunately, no one else was hurt.

R. L. Itley, who has been holding down the Williamsburg newspaper the Whitley Republican, came in Wednesday and went on to Harlan for a few days with his sister, Mrs. Lusk.

ATTORNEY HANDY

MAN WITH AX

WILLIAMSBURG, Ky., Aug. 14. J. B. Snyder, Commonwealth's Attorney of the Thirty-fourth Judicial District, today demonstrated his ability to wield an efficacious ax by destroying two moonshine stills of large capacity. The stills were brought to town today by two revenue officers who captured them in a raid near Rockhold seven miles north of here. The stills were of copper, and declared by experts to be skillfully constructed. A large quantity of sheet copper, supposedly held in reserve for further still construction, was also taken. The Commonwealth's Attorney swung his destructive ax in the Court House yard in the presence of a large crowd assembled. —Louisville Herald.

Reports come from the neighboring County of Whitley that the above press story is but a part of the real incident. The true facts are that Commonwealth Attorney J. B. Snyder, not only cut up the stills in the Court House yard at Williamsburg, but he instigated the raids which were made by the prohibition officers and took part in them. Getting tired of the nasty business, he carefully got detail knowledge of where moonshining was going on and got into personal touch with the Federal prohibition agents at Lexington and laid his plans before them. They were approved and the whole party started out. Mr. Snyder personally assisted in the capture of the two stills and copper above mentioned and the destruction of another large stilling outfit belonging to Riley Smith. Two prisoners were brought in and two got away from the officers. Mr. Snyder, knowing the psychological effect the public destruction of the stills would have, insisted on taking them to Williamsburg for this purpose and they were destroyed in the Court House yard.

Federal officers assisting Mr. Snyder were C. L. Winfrey, J. M. Cavanaugh and H. M. Samuels.

After the destruction of these stills the party was returning to the vicinity to finish the job of capturing two more stills which Mr. Snyder had located when the automobile in which Mr. Samuels was riding was wrecked and that officer sustained a fractured shoulder and it was necessary to return to Williamsburg for medical aid and this brought the still raiding to an untimely end.

We are proud to own Mr. Snyder as an officer of this county. He has demonstrated what can be done by one who has the still destroying fever. Moonshining can be done away with by going after it in earnest. Imitation is the sincerest flattery and we hope officials over the Mountain section generally will put pep into the work and incidentally adopt the same means of showing the law breakers that they mean business by using their Court House yards as execution grounds. Get the people with you and the battle is half won.

NEW AIRPLANE ARRIVES

Captain W. Beaver, pilot of the Barbourville Aeroplane Company and W. E. Burton, expert mechanic, arrived from New York Friday in the company's new Avro, three seater airplane. Since his arrival, Captain Beaver has been thrilling our citizens with exhibitions of tail spins, loop the loop, spiral and nose dives, side slips etc.

On the way from New York the aviators stopped at Lexington and picked up Colonel James Marat, the famous Boone Way good road man, who tells the story in sketch form, printed below.

Those wishing to take a ride in the new machine may arrange to do so by calling at the company's office in the "skyscraper" building of the Barbourville Supply Co.

SKYLARKING SKETCH

By James Marat

TIME—Friday, August 13, from Lexington Race Track, in airplane which arrived from New York on August 12, with a record run of 11 hours between that city and Lexington, 4:40 p. m. to Barbourville, Knox County, arriving there at 6 p. m. Machine was piloted by Capt. W. E. Beaver, who had seen four years with the British Royal Flying squadron during the war, accompanied by his mechanic and Col. James Marat, the Boone Way Man, as a passenger. The trip covered 116 miles; flight made in 30 minutes closely averaging 36 miles per hour.

ROUTE—Via Nicholasville, Richmond, Beras, Livingston, London and Corbin to the capital of Knox, using railroad lines as markers of trails.

ELEVATION—The general height maintained by the plane was 4,000 feet, tho at times it reached a mile.

While flying at 3,000 feet elevation autos were observable on roads which appeared to move at a snail's pace. From higher elevations macadam pikes looked like narrow chalk lines on a blackboard. While over Nicholasville we could see the Kentucky River. When passing over that stream it looked like a small yellow creek and the banks appeared almost flat, the cliffs scarcely being discernable.

Rain Cloud.—Passed thru rain cloud after crossing the river; could see rain falling below. A peculiar sensation. Then sunshines for a time. Many Cloud banks passed below us. The earth was hardly seen during the rain.

Appearance of surface of earth in the Bluegrass section is inclined to batpaws with the rim of the horizon a little elevated giving the appearance of a huge bowl or saucer. In the Cumberlands the elevated portions reminded one of "potato hills" with cleared farms as patches scattered here and there in the forests.

Richmond appeared like a small village. Our plane took a lower elevation at this point by circling the city; the same thing was done at London. Farms in the Bluegrass counties with their borders of fences and shade trees reminded one of a checker board and the houses looked not larger than martin boxes.

Branches and streams, filled with recent rains looked like strands of yellow thread with numerous twists and kinks. The crooked rivers, including the Kentucky, Cumberland, the Little and Big Rockcastle, certainly have tortuous windings, and are "crookeder" than a den of snakes.

PRETTY SIGHT—A silvery cloud bank or thunder-head was observed just south of Richmond. It was perhaps a hundred and fifty feet deep and four miles in length. We rubbed the westerly edge and even its top surface for three minutes. We passed near a number of clouds and cloudlets.

THE TRIP was made without a hobble or stop until our destination was reached. The passenger, who had "haen up in the air" before this suffered not a tremor of fear but enjoyed the trip over the Cumberlands to the utmost. A portion of the trip was made over and along the Boone Way routing, the too high to make a satisfactory inspection thereof.

tions given for fairs, companies, etc. Other cities are visited where the citizens are given thrills in the air.

The Boone Way Man made the trip to Barbourville for the purpose of looking down on the mountains on which he has ridden or walked many times during the past half century, and for the purpose of meeting some of the Commissioners of his pet highway, including Dr. G. H. Albright, J. A. McDermott, Judge S. B. Dishman, Hon. John Henry Wilson and others.

The trip to Barbourville required but 30 minutes. The return trip by train took just nine hours.

Captain Beaver will return to Lexington with his machine sometime during the week of August 16th.

COLLINGSWORTH

The death of Mrs. Julia Collingsworth occurred at her home August 11th. Deceased was the wife of Ben Collingsworth and was 28 years of age when called away. Tuberculosis was the cause of death. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Smith, of Artemus, who have charge of the postoffice. Other members of the family present at the interment were her three sisters, Mrs. Loyd Jackson, of Hazard, Mrs. Tip Jackson, and Mrs. Letcher Jackson, of Emanuel, and her brother, Oscar Smith. The funeral service was on August 12th, Rev. L. E. Curry, president of the Barbourville Baptist Institute, officiating.

WITT

Uncle Samuel L. Witt died Sunday night at his home here and was taken to Harlan for burial Monday. Deceased was 87 years of age and an old pensioner.

COOLEY

The death of Mrs. Emmett Cooley, nee Miss Christine Bolton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bolton occurred at Kingsport, Tenn., Saturday night, August 14th, as the result of typhoid fever. The funeral service was held at the home of her uncle, Rev. J. H. Blackburn, of this city, Tuesday, August 17, and the interment was in the City Cemetery.

Mrs. Cooley was born December 20th, 1895, and had a host of friends in Barbourville and Knox County. She was a girl of charming disposition, quiet and gentle in her ways.

Mrs. Cooley was a member of the Baptist Church and her earthly testament was laid to rest with the service of the church with which she had been affiliated.

The sympathy of the entire community will go out to the bereaved husband, father and mother, and the family at this time of their sorrow.

KENTUCKY BIG BATTLE GROUND

That Kentucky will rank second only to Ohio as a battle-ground in the presidential election is the statement to be published this week by the Hamilton Club of Chicago, in an article reviewing the political situation of the country.

The publication will state in its review of the situation that, with the campaign on in earnest, the whole country will watch with intensest political developments in this State during the next sixty days, and it expresses confidence that Kentucky will be found in the Republican column on November 2.

"Most encouraging reports come from the section south of the Mason and Dixon line known as the 'solid south,'" says the article. The hustling young Republican party managers in Kentucky last fall cracked the solid south with a resounding thwack that was heard all over the nation. It was the logical result of a change in political sentiment that was going on in the Commonwealth, and inspires the belief that, for the second time in her history, Kentucky will go with the Republicans in a presidential election.

"The big thing in Kentucky politics is that the Republicans of the State are possessed of a spirit to win Chesley H. Searcy, chairman of the State campaign committee, and his effective associates, are preaching this doctrine day and night. Organization is being carried into each district in the State more thoroughly than ever before.

"The Republicans are thoroughly harmonious. Richard P. Ernst, of Covington, a man known and loved all over the State, is the party's candidate for United States Senator. The Democrats, on the other hand, are divided. Inspired by the notable successes of the last three years, Kentucky Republicans are going to fight in this campaign as they have never fought before.

"Next to Ohio, perhaps, Kentucky is the greatest battle-ground in the country."

ROAD FUNDS

By appropriation of the Republican Congress $75,000,000 is available as Federal Aid to the States for road construction during the present year. Owing to the depleted condition of the National treasury further appropriations were not authorized by Congress during the last session, states Representative John M. Robison, of Kentucky. A bill providing for the expenditure of $200,000,000 a year for five years for road construction, introduced in the House of Representatives by Mr. Robison, will be taken up when Congress convenes again in December. "Congress has enacted a law authorizing the farmers to co-operate in the handling and selling of their products," he says. "Now we must push the good roads movement so that they may have the means of getting their products to market."

WELCOME HOME PARTY

A very enjoyable party was given
Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs.
W. F. Geyer in honor of their sailor son, Edward.

The crowd of young people were cordially welcomed and were soon plunged into various games which,
aided by the player piano, developed into a series of romps.

The young people of the family very hospitably looked after the enjoyment of their guests and there was not a dull moment during the evening.

Delicious homemade ice cream and cake were served.

WE AULD LANG SYNE

Mrs. John M. Tinsley entertained on Tuesday in honor of some of her old schoolmates who are visiting in the city. The guests were invited to come early and stay late. The day was given over to conversation and "when we were girls." Mrs. Tinsley brought from among her treasures a number of school programs in which these girls had "spoken pieces" and took part in dramas and music. Many a hearty laugh as well as some tears were indulged in during the day. A splendid 12 o'clock dinner was served.

The guests included Mesdames C.
H. Baker, New York City; J. R. Sawyers, St. Petersburg, Fla.; A. M.
Decker, A. W. Hopper and John M.
Tinsley of this city. When the time came for saying goodbye Mrs. Decker presented each of the guests with a splendid photograph of the group made at her home when she entertained them.

AN OPPORTUNITY TO ACQUIRE A COURSE IN HOME HYGIENE AND CARE OF THE SICK

Miss Effie Jump, Red Cross nurse, left this week with Rev. A. H. Davis for DeWitt, where she will establish a class in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick, give instruction in cause of contagion and in personal hygiene and household sanitation.
She will teach young girls and women simple nursing procedures and how to care for their families in the absence of a trained nurse.

Miss Jump will carry on these classes in DeWitt and nearby communities and cordially invites all girls and women sixteen and over to join these classes.

The course consists of fifteen lessons for which a small fee will be charged which will cover the cost of the Red Cross text books on nursing. However should the pupil be unable to pay the fee can be arranged for.

Even the unable to read and write pupils may join the classes.

After covering the County with these lessons, Miss Jump will take up Public Health nursing in Knox County and we trust every agency in the County, the Fiscal Court, the women's clubs, fraternalities etc., will get together and see that the necessary funds are raised to pay for her services as Public Health Nurse
after she has completed her Red Cross instruction.

TRIBUTES TO REV. R. L. CREAL

On Thursday of last week a large gathering of representative members of the Baptist Church spent a most pleasant evening at the parsonage, enjoying Rev. and Mrs. R.
L. Creal, not only with their presence, but with the most hountful refreshments.

The "surprise line" gathered under a tree near by and marched by two upon their pastor, who, in a bootless condition, was calmly reading the evening paper. The evening was spent in happy joking, and loving communion, attesting to the deep affection in which Mr. and Mrs.
Creal are held.

On Sunday, August 15th, Brother
Creal preached his farewell sermon to a large congregation, not only of Baptists, but many of the other denominations of the town. It was with difficulty he made this last address because of the deep sorrow so evident among the congregation.
Topic: "The Shepherd Heart of a Pastor." He spoke feelingly of the love he bore this church and this people, and how his heart has gone out to them; and how, in this hour of his parting, he realized that he is so beloved by his people that had they spoken it but a few short days ago he could not have had the courage to break the ties that so bind him here. He asked them to be loving and loyal toward the man who is to follow him here; and in parting, left with them the Scripture as found in Philippians 4:8 as their aim.

At the close of the service the deacons asked Mr. W. F. Amis to preside for a few minutes. Then Mr.
John Parker presented Bro. Creal in the name of the Church, with a handsome silver loving-cup, bearing the following inscription:

"Presented by members of Barbourville Baptist Church to Rev.
Robert E. Lee Creal, in loving memory of his administration as Pastor,
August 15, 1920."

Mr. B. E. Parker, speaking for the Board of Trustees of B. B. I., expressed their gratitude for the help and inspiration rendered the school by their pastor, and presented him with a handsome leather travelling bag bearing his name in gold letters and the following inscription:

"Presented by Trustees of Barbourville Baptist Institute, Barbour-ville, Kentucky, 1920."

During these presentations the emotion ran so high that the men who were presiding could scarcely talk for tears, and Bro. Creal asked their forbearance until he could control his own tears long enough to thank them. And in thanking them he tried to speak of the help Mrs.
Creal had been to him in his labors here, of how she had not been able to accomplish all she so desired for the people, and to thank them for her for their loving gifts to her on that day—the anniversary of her birth. Members of the Church presented her with $50 in money and many handsome gifts of place and linen for herself, her mother and the little son.

Never has the Baptist Church here parted with a pastor and his family with such sadness. There was the town given up a minister with such deep sorrow, the some fine men have served our churches. Expressions of regret are heard on all sides, and we do not hesitate to say that the very best of our community are urging him to stay, or to return at an early date and resume his work here.
But no member of our church would deprive him of the high honor paid him in this voluntary offer by the Baptist Home Mission Board of this position, which makes him one of the leading men of his denomination in the Southland.

Barbourville Baptist Church is justly proud of him, and he goes hence with their prayers following him, their love clinging after because of the parting—that is so hard.

SHALL WE SUE BAR- BOURVILLE ARRO COMPANY

A. Y. Anderson is considering whether he does not have a clear suit against the Barbourville Aero-plane Company. He owns a rooster which is being considerably frightened by the antics of Captain Beaver and the new Avro. As soon as the "monster" appears the rooster cocks an eye heavenward, gives utterance to a cry of sheer terror and dives under the coal shed.
The legal question is, has the B. A.
Company the right to "frighten" into hysterics the father of a family or several families? It may be that in some subtle way, the rooster has learned of the bomb habit of these strange creatures, hence his retreat to his bomb-proof cellar. It is a fine legal point, my brothers and sisters, and one which we commend to the more sophisticated minds of our talented legal brethren. Meanwhile all we can suggest is an "objection";
either to prevent the airship from ascending or one to prevent the rooster from holding. A. Y. doesn't have to pay us anything for this forensic advice either.

the shape ever since," said W. T.
Carmen, 442 South First St., Louisville, Ky., in conversation with special Tanlac representative recently.

"Before I got Tanlac," he continued, "I had suffered from indigestion for twenty years, and during that time I had many acute attacks that rendered me unfit for work for several weeks at a time. My stomach seemed to be weak and upset nearly all the time, and after every meal I suffered from a sour gas that formed on my stomach. Then several years ago I was taken down with a spell of typhoid fever that left me in a badly run down condition, and my stomach in a worse shape than ever. My liver became sluggish, I was constipated all the time and had that tired, worn-out feeling. My joints were stiff and every bone in my body seemed to ache, and I also suffered from bronchial trouble.

"Following my usual custom of trying everything I heard of, when I saw Tanlac advertised I bought a bottle, and after taking about half of the first bottle I knew I had at last struck the right medicine, for there was a considerable improvement in my condition. I stuck right to Tanlac until my troubles completely left me and I felt like a new man. Since that time, two years now I have made it a rule to take a bottle of Tanlac about every six months to tone up my system, and it keeps me in fine shape. I eat just anything I want at any time and never have an ache or pain. So I can testify to both the immediate and lasting results that come from Tanlac, and I am glad to make a public statement for what it may be worth to others who are needing such a medicine."

WOMEN CHALLENGE MALE RIFERS

Women have long been ridiculed for not knowing anything about the great American pastime, and for asking silly questions at baseball games but in Akron, O., are several young women who not only know the game
from A to Z but who can play it expertly. They're the Goodyear Girls, champions of the Akron Girls' baseball league.

Undeclared, and now unable to schedule games with other Girls' teams in the city because of their superior playing, the Goodyear Girls have gotten all chesty—even to the extent of challenging one of Goodyear's creek young men's teams. The challenge has been accepted and the Goodyear Girls and Goodyear
"Spis Midgets" who have been coached personally by Coach Ed. Connor, famous as director of athletics at Camp Sherman during the war, will stage a lively game shortly at Sieh-erling field, the Goodyear athletic stadium and hall park.

And the girls claim they are going to win hands down.—Goodyear

BITTEN BY SNAKE

Geo. Moore, who was gathering peaches for J. M. Engles of Indian Creek, was bitten by a copperhead snake on the middle finger of the right hand Wednesday. Thursday the hand was very badly swollen from the poison, the Dr. C. L. Heath does not anticipate any permanent serious consequences. The snake was on the ground under an over laden branch from which Moore was picking the peaches and struck before he saw it.

GLAD POLITICS ARE ELIMINATED

Endorsement of New School Board By Farmers Is Valued
By High Official In National Organization

The American Farm Bureau, the largest agricultural organization in the country, has endorsed the new school board in Kentucky. J. H. Crenshaw, the treasurer of the great organization of farmers, in a recent interview granted your correspondent, declared:

The Kentucky Farm Bureau stands for the elimination of politics from the school or educational affairs. The farmer boy and girl of Kentucky are entitled to the best mental training it is possible to secure. The question for

J. S. CRENSHAW,
Cadiz, Ky.,
Treasurer of the American Farm Bureau.

years past has been how can this be accomplished, now the solution is presented in the new school laws.

A law is no stronger than public sentiment, no law will work automatically. Are the farmers really and truly interested in the education of their children? Are they really and truly 100 per cent Americans? Are they opposed to Bolshevism? Do they think this government worthy of, and are they willing to do their best that it be perpetuated?

Everything depends upon the interest manifested in the election of the County Board of Education, of the election of men who will without fear or favor stand first for a square deal for the boys and girls of the State; who will have their interest as of first consideration; their future as of prime importance.

That there are a number of men and women in every county in Kentucky fully competent to compose these boards is unquestioned. The County Farm Bureaus should take an active part in impressing on them their responsibility; on calling the attention of the people to them, on seeing that the names of such men and women are placed on the ballot and on an aggressive campaign that their election be assured.

The Kentucky Farm Bureau endorses unqualifiedly the law creating the new County Boards of Education and will wholeheartedly give its aid to any county asking for assistance. In advising the people of the great opportunity it offers, for happier homes, for more prosperity, for the greater service and for bigger living. The lives of people can not be greater than their ability to live and their ability to live is measured by their knowledge of life. If we are saved to serve and born into the world to render service,

GREAT PIECE OF WORK

The Hon. J. H. Camden was visited in his country home near Versailles by your staff correspondent this summer to secure his viewpoint of the new school laws. That he is heartily in favor of them is shown by his statement which follows:

I know the rural school because I live in the country and see it at work during the whole school year, and I know it needs improvement.

I feel that the two political parties in Kentucky did a great and fine piece of work when they combined forces and passed a group of new and thoroughly up-to-date school laws. Among those laws passed none will be more far reaching in its results than the one creating a Board of Education for each county, composed of five members, who will have the power of selecting a county superintendent and thus take the office out of county politics.

Next November the public will naturally be very much interested in the national candidates and the national issues, but the matter of good schools and strong teachers should not be forgotten for a single moment. Good schools in the Twentieth Century are vitally important to each and every county in the Commonwealth. The voter should not forget that the finest and best National Government in the world will not educate the boys and girls out in the country. So it is up to the voters in Kentucky to see to it that progressive County Boards of Education are elected next November.

HON. J. H. CAMDEN,
Versailles, Ky.,
Democratic National Committeeman.

One point should not be forgotten when candidates for places on this board are being voted for and that is that they must not be pledged to any special person for the office of County Superintendent. The voter should help elect strong men on the board and leave them absolutely free to select a county superintendent who will make good. In other words, the voter should think of the boys and girls in his county who are not getting a fair square deal in the matter of schooling and forget who happens to wish the office.

MESSAGES OF FLOWERS

Do you see those flowers fair,
Red and white, and blue and yellow,
All their beauties twined together?
There's a sermon in each one.
God has put them here
To teach us mortals of His love
And help us reach his home above.

Red speaks of our Saviour's love,
And the Shedding of his blood;
For poor mortals in this world;
And His pure and sinless life
Speaks so plainly thru the white:
Reminding us thru all strife
To be pure in thought and life.

Blue entreats us to be true
To our God, ourselves and right;
To let no false friend lead us wrong,
But to serve Him day and night.
And in this world a light
Weak or strong, but ever bright,
That we may guide some step aright.

Yellow tells us plain and true
That our God is jealous of us,
And our love and words and acts:
That to Him we must yield all,
And give to Him our life and love,
And find in Him our all in all,
Trusting Him to lead us all along.

Thus each flower and bird and leaf
Shows His thought and love and cure
And they speak to souls of men
Each in its appointed way,
Telling us in words sublime
To do our best where'er we be,
And question not His will divine.

Mrs. Maacha Tuggle Conn.
Lancaster, Ky.

The Importance of Having Your Child's Eyes Examined Before Starting to School

School Opens In Two Weeks

The figures compiled by Dr. Thomas Wood, of Columbia University, show that of the 22,000,000 school children in this country, 16,000,000 have defective vision which may be impairing their efficiency in school work and handicapping their future.

Possibly your youngster is working under such a handicap, which if allowed to continue, may work very serious injury.—

Therefore, in the interest of your own youngster we suggest you bring the child in to us for Ocular Examination. Everything in our Examination is Scientific, Modern and Honest.

If glasses are not needed, we'll very gladly say so.

And now, during the vacation, inconvenience of a call is lessened to you.

FIRST AID TRAINING TO MEN AND WOMEN

American Red Cross Is Teaching Hundreds of Thousands Life-Saving Methods.

The purpose of instruction in First Aid to the injured offered by the American Red Cross is to train men and women to administer first aid treatment promptly and intelligently when emergencies demand it. First aid treatment is not intended to take the place of a physician's service. A surgeon should always be summoned as a precautionary measure where there is an injury of any consequence, but when one cannot be secured a few minutes' delay may mean a fatality. In such a case a person trained in first aid is invaluable not only to the individual, but through him to the community in which he lives.

There is perhaps no way of ascertaining the number of deaths or serious disabilities which result from lack of proper safeguards or prompt emergency treatment. It is safe to assert they number thousands daily. There can be no doubt that the application of first aid methods to each case would immeasurably lighten the country's toll of suffering and death.

The dissemination of first aid training and information has already produced a far-reaching and beneficial influence in the prevention of accidents on railroads, in mines and in great industrial concerns.

The benefit of a widespread knowledge of first aid in the event of a great disaster, such as a train wreck, an explosion, an earthquake, etc., is obvious. Laymen who have had first aid training can render efficient assistance. Many lives may depend upon such emergency care.

Red Cross first aid work includes (1) the formation and conduct, through Red Cross chapters, of classes for instruction in accident prevention and first aid to the injured among men and women in all communities and in every industry; (2) the introduction of courses of instruction in high schools and colleges.

The Red Cross is prepared to supply first aid books and equipment at reasonable prices.

Every person in this country able to do so should, in his own interest, receive Red Cross first aid instruction. Information about the course and instruction classes may be had at the nearest chapter headquarters.

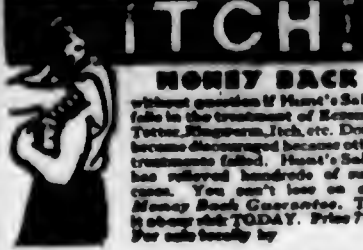

RED CROSS EXTENDS RELIEF TO POLAND

More than $5,000,000 has been spent by the American Red Cross in aiding the stricken people of Poland. The organization has nursed the sick, fed the starving, clothed the naked, sheltered the homeless, schooled the children and cared for the orphans there. It has conducted a relentless fight against typhus, cholera and other terrible diseases. So today millions of men and women in that resurrected nation speak in grateful appreciation of "The Greatest Mother in the World."

Nearly 200 American Red Cross workers are now engaged in relief activities in Poland. Four large relief bases are in operation and eleven mobile units are in the field. During the last twelve months this organization was largely instrumental in the re-establishment of a million refugees at a cost for general relief of more than $1,000,000. Last winter one-half million war orphans were aided materially, and since then a series of large orphanages have been established to give them permanent care.

But for American Red Cross aid, officials of Poland declared recently, millions of people in that country would have perished of disease, exposure or starvation the last eighteen months. And the work there must be kept up for another year.

"Keep your chin up."

While here they were the guests of Lafayette Drake.

Merle and Jack Gray were here last week packing up, preparatory to shipping their goods to Middlesboro where Dr. John A. Gray has accepted charge of the first Presbyterian Church. The many friends of Mrs. I. H. Ballard will be glad to know that she is progressing nicely after a fall from the back porch of her home. Mrs. Ballard was moving a tub on the porch when she tripped and fell off, her face striking across a barrel. As a result her right eye was bruised, her nose and neck were hurt and her teeth cut thru her lip. Dr. Tye, who attended her states that none of the injuries are permanent.

William Edward Geyer is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Geyer of the Model Bakery. Mr. Geyer is enjoying a twenty-three day furlough from Santiago, California, where his ship, the U. S. S. Arros-took is stationed. He joined the Navy January 15th, 1919, for four years and is rated as first class yeoman. Mr. Geyer likes the Navy, even the training at the Great Lakes. He says it is fine for a young fellow who wishes to see life. Any man who can live to the rules of the Navy can prosper and make money.

An odious fault is that of trying to avoid responsibility.
